

12 Weeks of Christmas - Week #12

Dress up items you can purchase locally to make cute home décor project or small gift ideas! With this cute little lantern, just add a tag with ribbon. You can fill it with candy or a tea light for a décor idea....or use it to include a gift card, jewelry, tickets, or any other small gift item for Christmas. The tag would also work great for your Christmas gifts, too!

Instructions:

1. Cut a 26" piece of Real Red $\frac{3}{4}$ " Stitched Ribbon, wrap around top of lantern and tie in a bow. Trim ends.
2. Cut a piece of Real Red Cardstock using the 2nd from largest Banner Framelit.
3. Cut a circle out of the largest circle framelit from the Layering Circles Framelits out of Whisper White cardstock. Emboss using Woodland Embossing Folder. Add glitter using a liquid glue.
4. Stamp the deer image on Chocolate Chip Cardstock using Early Espresso Ink. Cut using deer image from Santa's Sleigh Framelits.
5. Stamp the tree image on Wild Wasabi Cardstock using Garden Green Ink. Cut using the tree image from Santa's Sleigh Framelits.
6. Layer the Whisper White circle onto the Real Red banner using dimensionals. Then layer the tree and the deer on top of the circle, also using dimensionals.
7. Punch a $\frac{1}{4}$ " circle hole in the top of the red banner and tie around the Real Red $\frac{3}{4}$ " Stitched Ribbon using the Whisper White Thick Baker's Twine to attach it to the lantern.
8. Fill the lantern with the goody of your choice! Enjoy!
